

ICC Russia 10th Annual International Arbitration Conference
Russia as a Place for Dispute Resolution
28 November 2017 | StandArt Hotel Moscow

Conference Program

8:30-9:30 Registration. Welcome coffee

9:30-9:45 Welcome addresses:

Tatiana Monaghan, Secretary General, ICC Russia, Moscow

Michael Galperin, Representative of the Russian Federation at the European Court of Human Rights - deputy Minister of Justice of the Russian Federation

Alexis Mourre, President, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris

Hiroshi Oda, Member, ICC International Court of Arbitration; Professor, University College London and Waseda University; Attorney at law, Nagashima Ohno & Tsunematsu, Tokyo

9:45-11:30 Session I. "ICC kitchen" of selecting arbitrators and disputes administration

Topics for discussion

ICC kitchen in terms of selection and appointment of arbitrators will be explained and detailed by the experienced ICC National Committee representatives and ICC Court Secretariat staff.

Has the concept of "a good ICC arbitrator" changed?

Selection criteria and procedure for arbitrators according to the ICC Court practice.

"Secretariat kitchen" in terms of accepting payments (advance payments) from disputing or third parties in the context of sanctions and strengthening requirements for anti-money laundering.

Moderator

Vladimir Khvalei, Vice-President, ICC International Court of Arbitration; Partner, Baker McKenzie; Chairman, ICC Russia Commission on Arbitration, Moscow

Speakers

Alexis Mourre, President, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris

Ziva Filipic, Counsel, ICC International Court of Arbitration Secretariat, Paris

Ben Carroll, Partner, Linklaters, London, Moscow

Julia Zagonek, Partner, White & Case, London

11:30-12:00 Coffee break

12:00-13:30 Session II. ICC Expedited Rules in practice: first months of application

Topics for discussion

Since 1 March, 2017 the ICC has introduced expedited arbitration mechanisms into its rules for reducing both the time and cost of ICC arbitrations with lower value claims.

What are the ICC Expedited Rules?

How to use the proposed ICC Fast-Track Procedure with the most efficiency for business?

How do the Rules apply for small claims and could they be opted into for bigger arbitration claims?

What measures for improving proceedings effectiveness in large-scale cases have taken by the ICC Court?

Moderator

Julia Popelysheva, Counsel, Clifford Chance, Moscow

Speakers

Ilya Nikiforov, Vice-chair of the ICC Commission on Arbitration and ADR; Arbitrator; lecturer, St. Petersburg State University, St. Petersburg

Jose Ricardo Feris, Partner, Squire Patton Boggs; Former Deputy Secretary General of ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris

Andrey Panov, Senior Associate, Norton Rose Fulbright, Moscow

Dominic Pellew, Partner, Dentons, London

13:30-14:30 Lunch break

14:30-16:00 Session III. Proving corruption in international arbitration

Topics for discussion

Quintessence of corruption related cases in international arbitration.

Difficulties in proving: which party has to bear the burden of proof?

Standards of proof.

What evidence could be effectively used?

Corruption in investment cases.

Legal consequences of a finding a corruption.

Moderator

Vasily Kuznetsov, Partner, Baker Botts, Moscow

Speakers

Jonathan Blackman, Partner, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton, New York, London

Andrea Menaker, Partner, White & Case, Washington

Timur Aitkulov, Partner, Clifford Chance; Member, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Moscow

Sergey Alekhin, Associate, Willkie Farr & Gallagher, Paris

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-18:00 Session IV. Landmark arbitration cases of 2017

Topics for discussion

How does financial rehabilitation or bankruptcy influence on the arbitration agreement?

Reflection of arbitrability criteria in the modern practice of the Russian courts.

How the Russian courts decisions for criminal cases could influence on the recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitral awards in Russia?

Absence of funds from the party as a basis for recognizing an unenforceable arbitration clause.

Moderator

Dmitry Dyakin, Partner, "Egorov Puginsky Afanasiev & Partners", Moscow

Speakers

Maxim Kulkov, Managing partner, "Kulkov, Kolotilov & partners", Moscow

Elena Trusova, Partner, Goltsblat BLP LLP, Moscow

Yuri Makhonin, Senior associate, Dechert, Moscow

Anna Grischenkova, Partner, KIAP, Moscow

18:00 Closing remarks
